Chilean Whites

Mixed Half Dozen

INTRODUCTION

Chilean whites often have that 'safe' epithet fixed to their backs, and while many can be described as easy-drinking, straight from the fridge numbers, we've worked hard with Viña Sutil to find our Tanners Chilean Chardonnay, from the warm, gentle slopes of the lower Colchagua where the cooling Pacific breezes mitigate the hot Chilean sunshine. There's a lovely, lush, tropical side to this white which makes it incredibly moreish.

If however, you are seeking a brisker, crisper style with a slash of lemon zest, then back in Maipo you can enjoy the Select Terroir Sauvignon Blanc from Santa Ema.

Meanwhile, from just over the mountain, Viña Luis Felipe Edwards are producing very good Viognier, that wonderful spicy white grape that can be very tricky. Los Coches Viognier is grown on the southern (cooler) side of the Paralones vineyard.

THE WINES

1. Tanners Chilean Chardonnay, Colchagua Valley

Bin No: QW098

An exuberant Chardonnay with flavours of paw-paw and mango, characterised by an excellent fruit-filled, juicy finish.

2. Santa Ema 'Select Terroir' Sauvignon Blanc, Maipo

Bin No: QW045

Masses of fresh tropical fruit flavours. Lively and zesty with good character and a touch of minerality.

3. Los Coches Viognier, Valle Central

Bin No: QW092

Classic Viognier character of apricots, peaches, hints of pears and blossom. Full on the palate but with a lively citrusy character which keeps it from being too much.
