

Classic Pair

Chablis, Les Valéry, Jean Durup, Burgundy x I

This is textbook Chablis from one of the area's most successful producers. It has green-tinged hues and an elegant, slightly steely quality, with aromas and flavours of freshly-baked brioche.

Château Cissac, Haut-Médoc, Bordeaux x I

Dark chocolate and damson flavours prevail, and there's a lovely, supple core supporting what is a weighty wine. More approachable than in the past, this is already very enjoyable drinking.
