WINE MERCHANTS

Southern French Explorer

Half Dozen

INTRODUCTION

The South of France remains one of the most varied and exciting regions, producing everything from world-class wines, to everyday crowd-pleasers. Of the six bottles in this case, five are brand new listings! Leading the way is the redcurrant and peach-filled Tanners Provence Rosé. There's also a chillable red, Papa Roc, and a French take on Spain's favourite seafood white, Albariño, amongst others.

THE WINES

1. Bleu d'Alba Albariño, Pays d'Oc

Bin No: MW0103B

There's an increasing amount of Albariño in the south of France and this is an excellent example with good floral character and plenty of white fruits. There is fresh underlying acidity to give balance and a touch of minerality.

2. Pacherenc du Vic-Bilh Sec, Petit & Gros Manseng, Piémont Pyrénéen, Laougué

Bin No: MW0102B

This is a big, gentle wine with appley acidity and good weight and texture. There are floral notes on the palate, with brioche flavours and mineral notes to give balance.

3. Tanners Provence Rosé, Côtes de Provence

Bin No: MP0002B

Pale and bright, this is a classic Provence rosé with expressive fruit aromas. A silky and broad palate is characterised by exotic flavours and complemented by a mineral freshness on the finish.

4. Piquepoul Rosé, Coteaux d'Ensérune, Foncalieu

Bin No: MP0059B

The little-known Piquepoul Noir grape produces this beautifully delicate rosé, with floral notes of rose petals and lovely zesty fruit. Perfect for sipping in the sunshine.

5. Cahors, Tradition, Malbec, Château Haut-Monplaisir

Bin No: MR0126B

Attractive nose of cassis fruit leading to a juicy, fresh palate with black fruits, hints of hazelnut and soft tannins on the finish. This has 18 to 20 months ageing in concrete and oak, resulting in a soft and immediately drinkable wine.

6. Papa Roc, Côtes de Gascogne Rouge, Plaimont

Bin No: MR0123B

Light, fruity and vibrant wine bursting with juicy red fruit and attractive floral character. Very easy drinking and perfect for serving chilled.
