The Ultimate Christmas Six

Chablis grand cru Clos des Hospices dans Les Clos, Christian Moreau 2011 x 1

Full-bodied and generous, with wonderfully sweet aromas leading to a concentrated, intensely flavoured palate. Powerful, yet pure and elegant, with fine energy, depth and complexity derived from 40-year-old vines.

Taylor's Vintage Port 1977 x 1

A monumental Taylor, boasting immense fruit levels, fat, ripe raspberry, blackberry and cherry fruits, with violet, raisin, treacle and chocolate notes. Harmonious and silky with firm tannins and persistent length.

Bollinger RD, Extra Brut Champagne 2008 x 1

Hints of marzipan, cooked apricots, honey, fresh bread and citrus on the nose. Very rich and fine on the palate, with more citrus fruit, joined by sweet plums before a very clean dry finish.

Puligny-Montrachet, Etienne Sauzet 2015 x 1

Made with grapes sourced from ten small parcels of vines around the village. The result is a mineral character that pervades this wine, underpinning rich, citrus fruit with concentration and elegance.

Hermitage, La Chapelle, Domaine Paul Jaboulet Aîné 2016 x 1 🌿

Tremendously rich and concentrated wine, with spice and dried fruit on the nose, complexity on the palate with black cherry fruits and oak flavours melding together. Well-balanced tannins ensure this wine has stood the test of time.

Château Léoville Las Cases, 2me cru Saint-Julien 2004 x 1

According to Marc Pages of Château la Tour de By, who was one of the first people to try this wine, this is the wine of the vintage, better than all the First Growths!
