WINE MERCHANTS

New Riesling vine plantings at Meulenhof's Erdener Treppchen vineyard site

German Fine Riesling

Mixed Six

INTRODUCTION

A special collection of German wines covering a range of styles and regions from 2020 to 2022, offering a little development and plenty of room for further cellaring. These represent some of Germany's greatest villages and vineyards, a showcase of terroir, and wines that sing with an inherent energy, delicacy, and gorgeous fruit.

THE WINES

- 1. Brauneberger Juffer-Sonnenuhr Riesling Spätlese, Max-Ferd. Richter 2022 Bin No: GW0082B22
The heat and drought of 2022 halted ripening in spells, which helped to produce nervy, delicate, and racy Rieslings in the right hands. This offers a mélange of citrus and exotic fruits, an elegant, rounded mid-palate and a moreish, salty, slate-like mineral bite. It deserves a little longer in bottle and will reward long-term cellaring. 7.5% vol
- 2. Oberhäuser Brücke Riesling Spätlese, Dönnhoff, Nahe 2021 Bin No: GW0200B21
Bristling with energy, electric acidity and rich fruit. No botrytis here in 2021, the fruit is very pure, and the wine offers a tantalising, spicy, mineral intensity. This has 20+ years ahead of it, but it is hard to resist now! 8.5% vol
- 3. Erdener Treppchen Riesling Spätlese, Meulenhof, Mosel 2021 Bin No: GW0078B21
This famous, steep and rocky site in the middle Mosel is the perfect example of how hard it is to work these vineyards. The thin, slate soils produce racy, spicy Rieslings and the 2021 vintage has thrown up a classical mouthwatering, zesty example. 9% vol
- 4. Lenchen Riesling Kabinett, Peter Jakob Kühn, Rheingau 2021  Bin No: GW0036B21
Flattering aromatics and fruit that leans to the more exotic but with that 2021 lift. Bright, tense, and off-dry with a concentrated richness. An utterly delicious example from this peerless biodynamic estate. 9% vol
- 5. Jean Baptiste Riesling Kabinett, Gunderloch, Rheinhessen 2021 Bin No: GW0037B21
A great introduction to Kabinett Riesling from one of the great estates of Rheinhessen. A wealth of citrus fruits, notes of pear, apple and dried pineapple. Drier side of off-dry and great now. 10.5% vol
- 6. Henkenberg Grauburgunder, Grosses Gewächs, Salwey, Baden 2020 Bin No: GW0030B20
And now for the wildcard: a Grauburgunder, aka Pinot Gris, from the volcanic soils of the Henkenberg. Salwey have carved a name for themselves for fine Burgundian style wines, and this is superb – powerful, complex in its mineral expression, spicy and subtly floral, with great texture and lovely acidity. 13.5% vol
