What's Included

Oberhäuser Leistenberg Riesling Kabinett, Dönnhoff, Nahe 2018

This is an elegant and complex wine with distinct mineral undertones and great finesse. Helmut Dönnhoff is one of the world's greatest white winemakers and his wines sell out very quickly on release.

Kirchenstück Riesling Grosses Gewächs, Werner, Rheingau 2018 (Shrewsbury Oddment)

A fine, elegant Riesling with honeysuckle aromas and good rich fruit on the palate. The wines of Hochheim, at the eastern end of the Rheingau overlooking the River Main, have a delicate softness to them. Werner is one of the best producers here.

Roxheimer Höllenspfad Riesling Trocken, Dönnhoff, Nahe 2018 (Shrewsbury Oddment)

Sophisticated Riesling with notable fruit and spice aromas balanced by a precise and playful sweetness. Red sandstone lends the wine spicy aromas of black pepper and expressive fruits.

Ungsteiner Nussriegel Riesling Trocken, Rings, Pfalz 2018

A very expressive dry Riesling, full of ripe peach and lemon flavours with touches of grapefruit and a prolonged, crystal clear finish. From an 'erste lage', the equivalent of premier cru, vineyard.

Peter Jakob Kühn 'Quarzit', Oestrich Riesling Trocken, Rheingau 2018

This is a soft, attractive open wine with juicy apricot fruit sourced across Kühn's 18 hectares of vineyards in Hallgarten and Oestrich. Easy and accessible, this is an ideal introduction to dry German wine.

Hochheimer Dompräsenz Riesling, Erste Lage, Domdechant Werner, Rheingau 2018

Excellent example of the very attractive wines that the Rheingau can produce. Gentle, soft wine with notes of peaches and pear, good weight and well-balanced finish. Restrained and elegant.
