Description

The Tanners Team know these wines well, and just seeing this line-up makes our mouths water! The fizz from Burgundy is a terrific apéritif with its rich, creamy froth and super fresh palate. You'll also discover two crisp, zesty whites in here and two wonderfully elegant rosés. A brilliant light red from sunny Southern France completes this joyful summer set.

Full and flavoursome wine with good champagne like character, floral nose with soft citrus fruits and yeasty hints. From an excellent quality minded co-operative in southern Burgundy.

Picpoul de Pinet, Domaine des Lauriers 2019

A great example of this capricious grape variety. Sourced from the Auvergne region in France. It has good Pinot character on the nose and palate showing red berry fruits and a touch of spice.

Anna's Secret Rosato, Maremma Toscana, Val di Toro 2018

A beautifully elegant rosé with delicate strawberry and raspberry fruit, some good weight on the palate with freshness and good length of flavour.

No 1 Rosé, Coteaux d'Aix-en-Provence, Domaine Pey Blanc 2019

An attractive nose with white flowers and hints of exotic fruits leads to an elegant palate with red fruits and citrus flavours. From a family owned and run estate close to Aix-en-Provence.

River Grandeur Sauvignon Blanc, Viljoensdrift, Robertson 2018

Fresh Sauvignon with good depth of grassy character, juicy and lively.
Zesty and refreshing.
