Press Reviews	The Bird in Hand estate's reputation is growing by the day. This Côte d'Or-aping chardonnay, using grapes cultivated in the Adelaide Hills and fermented in Burgundian barrels, has fresh notes of tropical fruit and a subtle, nutty flavour. Will Lyons, The Sunday Times, 17th October 2021 Bird in Hand is a very successful family winery in South Australia. Note the alcohol in the wine; we're not looking at a blowsy, pineapple 14%-er here but a cooler, fresher model. The feel is rounded, with the soft nuttiness of cashew nuts and a swish of orange zest bringing it to a mouth-watering close. Victoria Moore, The Daily Telegraph, 9th September 2021
