Press Reviews	This own-label champagne from independent merchants Tanners is a star - it's fresh and fruity but has some serious complexity, with lovely notes of almond, biscuit and toast. A half bottle makes a proper treat. Susy Atkins, The Telegraph, 2nd May 2020 The best champagne and sparkling wine for Christmas 2019 One of the best own-label champagnes, Tanners has real gravitas. Unusually, it leads with the pinot meunier, and there is a lovely toasty, yeasty, aged depth to this wine that belies its price. Hamish Anderson, The Telegraph, 3rd December 2019 I've been impressed by the excellent quality of own-label champagne of the year. Based in Shrewsbury, the independent family wine merchant Tanners has found an Epernay cracker. Deep golden in colour, with a satisfying toasty richness, this tastes a lot more expensive than it is. The Sunday Times Magazine, Will Lyons, Sunday 30th December 2018
