Press Reviews

I hadn't tasted Cuvée Royale for a while and was hugely impressed. It's vivacious and elegant yet generous, too, and beautifully balanced, with a floral note on the nose and lemon curd and toast on the palate. It's a more or less equal blend of the three varieties – 35% for Chardonnay and Pinot Noir and 30% Meunier – with around 20% reserve wines and it was aged in the cellars for three years. Spot on. 12%

The term Cuvée Royale was added to this delicious Champagne when it was a chosen tippable of both Queen Victoria and also King Edward VII. Luxurious, superbly balanced and very long on the palate, this is a noble Champagne.

The latest release of Joseph Perrier's NV Brut Cuvée Royale is showing well, revealing a generous bouquet of ripe apples, mandarin, warm biscuits and subtle hints of honeycomb. On the palate, it's medium to full-bodied, fleshy and rounded, with a generous core of fruit, ripe acids and a youthfully frothy mousse. It's testimony to the progress made at Joseph Perrier in the last decade. 2018 – 2026. 89 Points

An attractive, yellow-citrus style with plenty of zesty acidity on the palate. The drive and richness here are impressive. Score: 91 Points

A nose of almond and pepper with elegant, sweet floral appeal on the palate. Understated for a Pinot-dominated wine, but poised and self-confident.
