Product Images

Description

From the wild, sparsely populated state that occupies the 'instep' of Italy's boot-shaped South, this gives a super, very juicy glass of wine. The Aglianico grape's damson fruit is complemented by cherry-like Sangiovese.

Press Reviews	Basilicata is the 'instep' of Italy's 'boot' and it is here that the indigenous Aglianico grape flourishes. This evocative red is made from 75% Aglianico and 25% Sangiovese and it feels like the classy Tuscan grape variety has tamed some of the wildness in the swarthy Aglianico. The result is a wonderfully ripe and soothing red with masses of character and flair. Matthew Jukes, The Daily Mail, 6th June 2020
