Press Reviews

From one of the pioneers of English sparkling and a very traditional champagne style: creamy and toasty, with a citrus lift.

Terry Kirby, The Independent, 8th February 2018

Nyetimber is where the great English wine boom all began in the mid-1980s, when the classic champagne trinity of chardonnay, pinot meunier and pinot noir were planted. Produced by Cherie Spriggs and Brad Greatrix, this market leader has first-class flavour.

Will Lyons, The Sunday Times, 21st January 2018

England's most consistent fizz is this Classic Cuvée. Go on, celebrate in style with this rich, creamy, opulent, buttered lemon brioche bubbly.

Jane MacQuitty, The Times, 2nd December 2017
