Description

Best Peculiar Variety

*Why? A step up from retro '70s fav Lambrusco Rosso, this is the red to drink chilled, from the fridge when the sun beats down! It is sweet, it is very more-ish and best of all it is produced by the fabulous Bologna family, originally headed by Giacomo who got the nickname 'Braida' after his love of playing handball. Join in the fun with this lovely red wine, super with strawberries. Robert Bouflower

Beautiful, light and lightly fizzy. This semi-sparkling and very sweet red is incredibly moreish and has become something of a cult wine to customers and staff! Filled with strawberry and redcurrant fruits.
