A delicious, pure, lighter style of Burgundy from a famous Vosne-Romanée based producer whose family has had vines in the Hautes-Côtes for many years. Up here the vines rub shoulders with blackcurrant bushes, used for Cassis.

Press Reviews	This is a lighter, paler style of Pinot Noir but it has plenty of potential for ageing too. Grown on a 4ha monopole (where the last part of the vineyard was acquired in 2011), this has density and structure with beautifully integrated oak, while retaining freshness and finesse. Fine quality for the Hautes Côtes. Andy Howard MW, Decanter Magazine, August 2018
